

RumRum (muRmuR)

Murmur started as a rum bar. As such, we have a large selection of rums from all over the world. Despite what you may think, rum is delicious, extremely varied and blessed with a fascinating history. Give it a chance and at the end of the night you may find yourself, like Jack Sparrow, "why is the rum gone?" Feel free to ask for a sample of our favourite, or yours.

Vodka

“Vodka’s very, very deceptive... they market this to children now.” Dylan Moran.

Ahhh vodka, the chicken of spirits.

Ok we’ve got Grey Goose, Ketel One, Belvedere and even a couple of rare ones and they are all really well made, but come on!!!?? Odourless, tasteless, spirit...*

*I know we will get into trouble for this on principle!!

Beer

Because we love sampling new beers, Murmur's beer list is ever changing. As such, it is hard for us to provide for all of them on our menu. We have up to forty local and imported beers and ciders in our fridges at any one time, so if nothing immediately grabs your attention, have a gamble on something different, ask for a recommendation or close your eyes and point. Please note that while we may believe in unicorns, fairies, Hogwart's and the power of the free market to regulate the economy, we do not believe in low carbohydrate beer. Below is a list of what we more often than not have in stock.

Mountain Goat Hightail Ale (Australia)
Hawthorn Range (Hawthorn, Australia)
Budvar (Czech Republic)
Peroni (Italy)
Pilsner Urquell (Czech Republic)
Schofferhofer Hefeweizen (Germany)
Konig Ludwig Dunkel (Germany)
Chimay Blue (Belgium)
Sierra Nevada (California, U.S.A.)
Samuel Adams (Boston, U.S.A)
